Catharina was born in 1810, according to the 1880 census, at which time she was living with her son and his family in Newark, NJ. Catharina's last name is not known at this time. Research indicates that she was born in the Grand Duchy of Baden, Germany.

Catharina married Henry Müller in about 1834. During the early 1800s, most German women married between age 23 and 25. Most German grooms were between age 25 and 30. Henry was 40 years old at the time of their marriage, indicating that Henry was a widow. U.S. census records show that Henry had a son born in 1826 to his first wife, and they probably had more children.

Catharina, Henry, and their German-born children emigrated from Germany about 1845 and settled in "Germantown" in Newark, NJ. Catharina's children are Peter born 1837, our ancestor Anna Margaretha born 1839, and Louisa born 1842.

Peter, a grocer, married in 1861 and had six children. Louisa married in 1862 and had four children. Anna Margaretha married in 1860 and had one child. See Anna Margaretha Müller's bio, chapter four.

Research is ongoing and this chapter will grow as more becomes known.
